Four Injured In 9 Weekend Auto Crashes; 2 Deer Die In Collisions With Autos

State police from the local station, after a quiet holiday, found themselves faced with nine weekend crashes, including ones in which two deer attacked autos, and seven vehicles skidded into the Marsh Creek Bridge on the Emmitsburg Rd.

Four persons were injured.

The deer accident, which police say "is one that couldn't happen again in a hundred years," occurred 1 1/2 miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. at 2:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Peter Antone Phillips, 56, Atlanta, Ga., was driving south near the Lee-Meade Inn. Following his car was a sedan driven by Clyde Barth, 25, Millintown.

Two Deer Killed

Phillips told police he saw nothing amiss until a deer "came through" his windshield, causing $80 damage to his car and causing Mrs. Phillips, aged 46, to suffer a laceration of the face which was treated at the Warner Hospital.

Barth had a moment's notice. He saw three deer suddenly appear at the side of the road, traveling at a rapid speed. One landed in the Phillips car, another smashed into the front and side of the Barth vehicle, causing $200 damage. The third missed both cars. Both of the deer which hit the cars were killed.

Cars Skid on Ice

The seven-car accident at Marsh Creek Bridge came about as a result of a sudden change in the weather, state police said.

A frost had covered the ground and roads during early hours Sunday morning, but roads were no more than damp. Then a chill breeze began and at various times the moisture on the roads at certain spots froze into solid sheets of ice.

One of those spots was the area around the Marsh Creek Bridge. Georgina Neundorff, 41, Bolton, Ontario, was the first to hit the ice, at 6:45 a.m. Her car skidded, as she was headed south, and struck the bridge, causing $75 damage to the vehicle.

Cars Pile Up At Bridge

Frank Walden Lester, 20, of Camp Hill, a student, driving behind the bolted car, noticed it skidding, and attempted to stop. He skidded, avoided the Ontario vehicle, but struck the bridge several times, smashing through a guard rail, struck a telephone pole, and wound up in the lawn of Mrs. George R. Miller, on the south side of the bridge, with $900 damage to his car.

Shortly thereafter Mrs. Gertrude H. Ingham, 53, of Syracuse, N. Y., also headed south, arrived on the scene. She saw the wrecked cars ahead, slammed on the brakes, skidded past the Ontario car, crossed the bridge, hitting it en route, hit the guard rail and wound up in Mrs. Miller's lawn. Damage to her vehicle was estimated at $800. She suffered a laceration of the scalp which was bandaged by Mrs. Miller, and was treated later at the Warner Hospital.

A few minutes later, John L. King, 23, Washington, D. C., headed north, approached the bridge. He saw the wrecks, decided it was time to slow down and skidded. After swinging around in the road several times, he plowed through the mail boxes of George R. Miller and George A. Miller, which were located (Please Turn to Page 5)

G. C. STEINOUR EXPIRES AT 86

George C. Steinour, 86, retired farmer, died at 3:15 o'clock this morning at the home of a son, Emory C. Steinour, Gettysburg, R. 3.

He was a son of the late Cornelius and Amanda (Alvord) Steinour and was born and lived all his life in this county. His wife, the former Cora Stallsmith, died 10 years ago.

Surviving are these children: Mrs. Elmer Fissel, Gettysburg, R. 3; Miss Marjorie Steinour, Gettysburg; Emory C., at whose home he died; and Mrs. William Brown, Baltimore; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Robert Long, Gettysburg, R. 3.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Dugan Funeral Home, Benderville, with the Rev. Robert Schiebel, Arendtsville Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment in the Fairfield Cemetery at Arendtsville.

J. D. CLAPSADDLE DIES SUNDAY OF HEART ATTACK

Jesse D. Clapsaddle, 75, Gettysburg R. 1, died Sunday afternoon at 4:22 o'clock at his home, to which he had returned a week ago from a visit to Florida.

A native of Adams County, he was a son of the late Jacob and Susannah Fry Clapsaddle. For many years he had operated the Clapsaddle Sand Quarry, but more recently he had been engaged in the sale of electric pumps.

He and Mrs. Clapsaddle, following their annual custom, had gone to Florida earlier this winter. He had become ill there and returned home last Monday.

12 Children Survive

While he remained in bed most of the time, he was able to be up and about the house throughout the last week and was not believed seriously ill. Sunday afternoon he suffered a heart attack and died.

Surviving are his wife the former Ruth Cromer, whom he wed in 1902, and 12 children: Harley W., Arlington, Va.; Wilson C., Gettysburg R. 1; Clair J., Arendtsville; Jesse L., Stevens St.; John D., Gettysburg R. D.; Marilyn P., Andrews Air Base, Washington, D. C.; Harold C., Biglerville R. D.; Eugene R., Gettysburg R. D.; Mrs. Ethel C., Aiken, Washington, D. C.; Ruby M., Tokyo, Japan; Mrs. Mildred R., Murray, Gettysburg R. 1, and Miss J. Elizabeth, Harrisburg.

SELF-STYLED "ROBBER" FACES OTHER CHARGE

Richard Shuey Weaver, 24, Hershey, who told Bonneville residents early Sunday morning that he was a robber, turned out to be just a fellow who was about to be charged with disorderly conduct, state police reported this morning.

Police said they were called at 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Norman Smith, Bonneville. Smith told police a man had come to his home, claimed to have participated in a robbery with "two other guys" and was causing a disturbance.

Police sped to investigate. They found Weaver, in their words, "in quite bad shape." With police assistance Weaver soon recovered a "more sober state" and the investigation continued.

Police found Weaver and two companions had been "on the town," and finally had arrived in Bonneville. The companions decided Weaver should not drive and took his car keys from him. Weaver then punched one of his companions. He got punched in return. Weaver took off into some woods near Bonneville. Later he went to the Smith home to report himself a robber. Police found no robbery had been committed.

Police "paroled" Weaver into custody of his companions and told them all to return Sunday afternoon. Weaver at that time pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore to a disorderly conduct charge, posted $15.50 forfeit bail and returned home.

Evangelistic Series At Iron Springs Church

Rev. Christian H. Sider, Perry Station, Ontario, Canada, will be the speaker at a series of evangelistic meetings to be held at the Iron Springs Brethren in Christ Church starting this evening. The series will conclude Sunday evening January 17.

Week-day services will be held at 7:30 o'clock each evening and Sunday evening services will be at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Sider is a former pastor of the Iron Springs church, serving there in 1929 and 1930. During that time he and his family resided in Fairfield.

Rev. Leonard A. Falk is pastor of the Iron Springs church.

Eisenhower's Program Called "Dynamic And Progressive"

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower gave Republican legislative leaders a detailed review today of his program for the new session of Congress, and House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) hailed it as "dynamic" and "progressive."

"We all think it is a program that will be well received by all elements of the country," Martin said as spokesman for the leaders. The White House conference opened a momentous and busy week for the President. Tonight, he will go on radio and television at 9:30 p.m. EST, to discuss what his administration has done so far and to outline the philosophy of the program he will recommend in the State of the Union message to be delivered in person to a joint Senate-House session on Thursday.

John D. Grushon, 67, Farmer, Dies Sunday

John David Grushon, 67, well-known retired farmer of near Emmitsburg, died suddenly at his home Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. He had been under a physician's care due to a heart condition for a number of years.

He was a son of the late Henry and Ellen (Reighler) Grushon and was a member of Tom's Creek Methodist Church where he served on the board of trustees for many years. His wife, the former Rosa A. Weant, died about 14 months ago.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. George Devillibus, at home; one son, Ralph D., Littlestown; one granddaughter, and one great-granddaughter.

Funeral services Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Creager Funeral Home, Thurmont, conducted by the Rev. Byron Keeseecker. Interment in the United Brethren Cemetery, Thurmont. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

TRAILER BURNS IN MOUNTAINS; LOSS IS $500

Damage was estimated at $500 when fire destroyed a home-made trailer owned by Joseph McDannell one mile west of Indian Trail Inn in the mountains at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Fairfield Fire Chief Harper C. Hiner said the fire apparently started from a stove in the wooden structure. Mr. McDannell had resided in the trailer for several years. More recently has been residing at the home of Peter Dear-dorff nearby and was using the trailer only during the day. He had started a fire Saturday in a stove in the trailer and then had gone to chop wood. He later looked around to discover the trailer ablaze.

Lost in addition to the structure were articles of clothing and other effects.

Third In Three Days

The fire was the third in three days for the Fairfield firemen and marked the third use of the town's new fire truck. The truck arrived Tuesday night, was serviced last Wednesday, went into action Thursday afternoon at a chimney fire on the Johnson residence in Fairfield, saw its second action in fighting a 15-acre woods fire near Orr-tanna along the Jack Rd. Friday afternoon and then was called out to two fires Saturday. The first was to a chimney fire and the second to a three-acre woods fire on the mountains near Rock Top Saturday afternoon.

Gettysburg firemen were called out shortly before noon Saturday to a grass fire on the Vernie Criswell property along the Hunterstown Rd.

AVERAGED 25 DAILY AT JAIL

Sheriff Dorsey Schultz, beginning a new term of office this morning, had 1,381 persons in jail during his four-year term, which ended today. The sheriff reported 382 prisoners had been in the jail during 1953, 358 in 1952, 356 in 1951 and 283 in 1950.

The average number of prisoners per day during 1953 was 25. The smallest number of prisoners in the jail at one time was 17 and the largest number was 38.

The sheriff started his new term today with 22 prisoners at the jail. During the year the sheriff made 65 levies on properties, served 118 summonses and 44 rules and processes, and served subpoenas in 41 cases. He conducted eight sales of real estate and three sales of personal property.

Schultz also announced today that the fee for firearms permits obtained from him has been raised by the state legislature from 50 cents per year to $1.50 per year. Eighty-three countians hold pistol permits.

Robert Weikert Is Luther League Head

Robert Weikert was elected president of the Luther League of St. James Lutheran Church at the annual organization meeting of the group Sunday evening at the church. Other officers chosen for the year include: Vice president, Joyce Mehring; secretary, Nancy Neth; and treasurer, Roland Schriver.

The officers will be installed by the pastor, Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, at next Sunday's Luther League meeting at 6:30 p.m.

HOME FROM KUNTING

Albert J. Plank and J. Clair Ford, both of Gettysburg R. D., and Raymond J. Foulk, Biglerville R. D., have returned from a hunting trip in Delaware. Mr. Foulk shot a 144 pound doe, said to be the "largest ever reported killed in that state." Mr. Plank and Mr. Ford each shot a buck.

NEW TREASURER AND CLERK OF COURTS GIVEN OATHS IN COURT

Three county officials and one borough official were sworn into office this morning at 10 o'clock in Adams County Court.

Judge W. C. Sheely read first the commissions of Kenneth W. Johns

JACOB G. APPLER

KENNETH W. JOHNS

as clerk of the orphans, quarter sessions and oyer and terminer courts, then read the commission of Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz.

The two men were joined then by County Treasurer Jacob G. Appler and the oath of office was administered to the three men by Judge Sheely. When that was completed the judge administered the oath of office to William G. Weaver, beginning his second term as burgess of Gettysburg.

Ends 10 Years In Office

Mrs. Emma Sheffer, W. Middle St., completing ten years as clerk of courts, was at the clerk's desk for the opening of court. With the swearing in of Mr. Johns her term ended and she turned over the desk to the new clerk.

The court then took up current matters of business.

Harry Mummert, New Oxford R. 1, who had been given a suspended sentence previously by the court on condition that he pay the costs and the sum of $150 for use of the county on a charge of driving after his operator's license had been suspended, was brought before the court to make the payments. The suspension of his sentence was revoked and he was sent to jail for 60 days and ordered to pay the costs.

Gets Suspended Sentence

Anna Smith, Carlisle St., was brought next before the court. Last June she had been charged with malicious mischief in connection with allegedly pulling flowers from the garden of Samuel Mattingly, 117 Carlisle St. Shortly thereafter the charge was "not proved." This morning the "not proved" was stricken off and she was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year.

The charge of desertion and non-support brought against Sterling Sanders, Gettysburg, was ordered continued to January 19.

County Auditors Elect G. M. Conover

George M. Conover was elected president of the Adams County auditors as they resumed their year's work this morning at the Court House.

Mr. Conover succeeds John S. Wolfe, president of the auditors for many years. Mr. Wolfe, ill for some time, was unable to be present for this morning's session and told the other two auditors that he may not be able to join them for some time because of illness. Arthur M. Weikert was named to his third term as secretary of the board. Attorney Charles W. Wolf was renamed as solicitor.

Historical Society To Elect Tuesday

The annual election of officers and presentation of annual reports are slated for the business session of the Adams County Historical Society to be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the court house.

The business meeting will precede the program which will be highlighted by a talk by Norman Wilkinson, member of the staff of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission. His subject will be "Some Early Land Grants in Pennsylvania" and will give special attention to those in this part of the state.

CHURCHMEN SEE FILM

The men of Christ Lutheran Church met at the church Sunday evening and after dessert Robert Weaver presided over the devotional and business sessions of the meeting. Prof. George Grube, of the Biology Department of Gettysburg College, showed and explained a color film on "Marsh Creek."

HONOR COUPLE WED 50 YEARS ON WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Fidler, Gettysburg R. 4, were guests of honor Saturday evening at a dinner at The Willows, Harrisburg Rd., in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary which will be reached on Wednesday.

The couple received a number of presents including 50 one-dollar bills from their children and their families. There was a large wedding cake that the couple cut at the conclusion of the dinner party.

The couple was married by the late Rev. Seth Russell Downie at the bride's home at Plainville. She is the former Margaret McIlhenny, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIlhenny. Mr. Fidler is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fidler.

The couple went to housekeeping at Plainville and then moved to the McIlhenny ancestral homestead along Great Conewago Creek, south of Twin Bridges, where they lived for seven years. They moved to their present home about six miles north of Gettysburg along the Harrisburg Rd. in 1921. That property was bought in 1854 by Mr. Fidler's grandfather, Daniel Fidler.

Mr. Fidler, a farmer and thresherman, was a road supervisor in Strasburg Twp. for 12 years. He is 73 years of age and Mrs. Fidler is 74. Both enjoy good health.

Attending the anniversary dinner Saturday were the couple's two children, Robert D. Fidler, a Gettysburg High School faculty member, and Mrs. Edgar Millhimes, New Oxford R. 2; Mrs. Fidler, Mr. Millhimes; the two grandchildren, Dorothy Fidler and Nancy Millhimes, and J. Frank McIlhenny, Gettysburg R. 4, brother of Mrs. Howard Fidler.

MORE SPOTTERS NEEDED HERE

Volunteers are still needed to staff 11 "open" periods remaining on this week's schedule of the Gettysburg Civil Defense Ground Observation Corps spotter station.

Individuals desiring to sign for "spotter duty" should contact John B. Kendeshart at 789-X. Chief observer James W. Strickhouse requests that persons who find it impossible to comply with their scheduled times should either attempt to furnish a substitute or call 789-X so that another party can be contacted.

The schedule Tuesday through Friday follows: Tuesday, midnight to 11 a.m., open; 11 to 2 p.m., Mrs. Bernard F. Redding and Mrs. Mary Stover; 2 to 5 p.m., Mrs. Bernard Murray, and 8 to 12 p.m., Roland B. Redding and Miss Edna Redding; 5 to 8 p.m., Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kime and Lyndale Brandon.

$350,000 Explosion Wrecks Two Pottstown Stores Today

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—An explosion in the downtown section of Pottstown today wrecked the F. W. Woolworth Co. and the Royal Jewelers Co. stores. Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer estimated damages in excess of $350,000.

The blast, shortly after 8:30 a.m., rocked buildings throughout the midcity district.

The buildings housing the stores are at 247-251 High Street, in the heart of the business district. Employees on duty at the Pottstown Mercury, a block and a half away, said the blast shook their building.

Radio station WPAZ on an upper floor of the building housing the Woolworth store went off the air at 8:37 a.m. because of smoke flooding the studio.

PA. DEMOCRATS MENTION RICE FOR GOVERNOR

Former State Senator John S. Rice, W. Broadway, once the Democratic nominee for governor of Pennsylvania, is being mentioned again as a gubernatorial candidate, according to an article appearing in a Harrisburg newspaper.

The article follows:

Central Pennsylvania Democrats, seeking a gubernatorial candidate to make a strong appeal for the rural vote, have been mentioning former State Sen. John S. Rice, of Gettysburg, as a possibility for the nomination.

Rice headed the Democratic ticket as its gubernatorial candidate eight years ago, losing the election to former Gov. James H. Duff.

Rural Vote Needed

Democrats in the county level say they must get a big rural vote if they are to make a strong bid for the governorship this year.

Although Philadelphia District Attorney Richardson Dilworth is regarded as front-runner, despite his request that his candidacy not be pushed, the rural Democrats are said to be not very enthusiastic about the Philadelphian.

Rice was Democratic majority leader in the State Senate in 1937 when his party controlled the upper branch of the assembly. He later became president pro tempore and when the Republicans regained a majority he served as minority leader.

War Veteran

The Adams County orchardist and fruit packing supply manufacturer is 54 years old. He served in both World Wars and holds the Army rank of colonel.

His entry into politics was involuntary. In 1932 no Democrat filed for the nomination for State Senate in the Adams-Franklin District.

Friends of Rice started a sticker campaign on his behalf while he was away on a business trip, and although there was a general Democratic sweep in the election, Rice polled more votes in his district than the late President Roosevelt. He was re-elected in 1936, again leading the ticket.

$23,274 Action Is Filed Here Saturday

A complaint in an action in trespass brought by Mrs. Verna H. Arndt, Gettysburg, administratrix of the estate of her son, Robert C. Arndt, against Paul A. Walter, Gettysburg, and Harry A. Zentz, Thurmont, R. 2, was filed here Saturday.

In her suit, Mrs. Arndt seeks to recover $2,274 for medical, hospital, funeral and other expenses, $1,000 for pain and suffering and $20,000 for loss of maintenance.

The Arndt youth died October 18, 1950, a day after the accident involving an automobile in which he was riding and a disabled truck on the Biglerville road, a mile north of Gettysburg. Walter was the driver of the car and Zentz was the operator of the truck.

IKE ON WGET

President Eisenhower's radio address to the nation tonight will be broadcast over WGET, it was announced today.

The President goes on the air at 9:30 o'clock.

FALLS FROM AUTO

Richard E. Miller, Gardner's R. 1, aged 4, suffered scalp lacerations and a possible cerebral concussion Friday when he fell from an automobile near his home. He was admitted to Carlisle Hospital.

Work on a 10,000 square foot shoe factory expected to provide employment for up to 200 Fairfield residents will be started this week, according to an announcement today by the Fairfield Improvement Organization.

The factory will be built on ground adjacent to the Fairfield Athletic Field under the supervision of Donald Crouse, Fairfield contractor. No estimate was made on the cost of the project.

According to Robert Newman, member of the Fairfield Citizens' Building Committee, the concrete and steel structure will be located on a property containing 60,000 square feet. When completed the plants will contain offices, rest rooms, and work sections.

Acquire Other Options

Immediately after purchase of the factory site from Harry Kane, the Improvement Organization moved to fulfill the requirements of future expansion by taking options on surrounding plots of ground.

In a statement this morning Newman said "Our aim is to provide employment for the residents of Fairfield community and if weather permits we can expect to be in operation by spring or early summer."

The need for a new factory arose out of the $1,500,000 fire which leveled the former Fairfield Shoe Company on August 2, with temporary loss of employment for 400 men and women. Subsequent rebuilding plans call for the erection of a factory one mile west of Gettysburg at Willoughby Run.

Newman's comment was that the Fairfield project was not meant to "take the place" of the original shoe company, but rather, "we feel that many Fairfield residents will not care to make the trip to Gettysburg for employment."

Plant Is Leased

The factory will be operated under lease-rental conditions. Saturday a contract was signed by Carl Filsinger, Nanticoke, who will rent the plant and assume the position of manager. Filsinger, now manager of a similar factory in Nanticoke, was formerly superintendent of the Fairfield Shoe Company. Both he and his family plan to move to Fairfield in the spring.

Following the Fairfield Shoe Company fire Newman, at that time president of the Chamber of Commerce, and H. C. Heiner, borough council president, declared the disaster to be "the worst blow in the history of Fairfield."

Members of the Building Committee include: C. Leroy Sheads, George Steinberger and Newman.

MISS MILLER, STANLEY FROCK WED SATURDAY

Miss Lois Jean Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Miller, 24 Newark St., Littlestown, and Stanley Fern Frock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings V. Frock, Taneytown R. 1, were united in marriage on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist Church, Littlestown. The bride's pastor, the Rev. Harvey B. Simons, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was attended by Miss Ruby Frock, Westminster R. 1, sister of the groom, as maid of honor. Elmer G. Miller Jr., Littlestown, brother of the bride, served as best man. The ushers were Kenneth Frock, Westminster R. 1, brother of the groom, and Robert Straley, Littlestown, R. 2.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a waltz length gown of net over satin fashioned with a full skirt and a fitted lace jacket, featuring a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip length veil was caught by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and white carnations from which fell a shower of white satin streamers and rosebuds. Miss Frock wore a light blue waltz length strapless gown with a net stole. Her headress was of flowers with a shoulder length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and pink carnations. Mrs. Winfield A. Lippy, Littlestown, (Continued on Page 2)

COURT HANDS DOWN OPINIONS IN TWO CASES

A number of legal snarls were taken up in two opinions handed down by the Adams County Court this morning. The opinions were handed down following arguments last month.

As a result of the opinions the writ of attachment in the foreign attachment in assumpsit brought by Paul P. Worcester, trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of the Adams County Co-operative Egg Association, against Albert Eberhart, Baltimore, former manager of the co-operative, is returned into effect.

In the other, attorneys for Grant Toner and Lloyd Kuhn, administrator of the estate of George W. Toner, deceased, are given the opportunity to file a proper answer in the attachment execution brought again Toner and Kuhn by Grover C. Myers.

In the Eberhart case the question was on a motion to quash the writ of attachment. The writ had been brought against personal property of Eberhart when he was first arrested on charges of embezzlement of the co-operative's funds.

File Motion To Quash
More recently a motion to quash the writ was filed alleging that the statement of claim did not allege that Eberhart was a non-resident of Pennsylvania. Later, a rule to show cause was issued and subsequently the motion to quash was made absolute upon failure of the plaintiff to file an answer to the rule.

Worcester's attorney pleaded that he had expected notice to argue the matter, but had received none. He also argued that the alleged defective averment of non-residence was made in Worcester's statement of claim, but not in the affidavit of cause of action. The court in its opinion today held that if non-residence is specifically noted in the affidavit of cause of action it need not be so declared in the statement of claim.

Judging by the opinion in the Grant Toner case, attorneys for both sides become involved in procedures which did not apply and as a result the defense was given 15 days to answer to the matter at hand.

LIST SPOTTERS FOR ORRTANNA

Volunteers who will staff the Orttanna Ground Observation station Wednesday through Saturday, 2 p.m., have been announced by Clarence D. Deardorff, area supervisor. Preaching Mission Opens

The annual week of preaching mission services opened in Littlestown on Sunday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church with a large congregation present. The Rev. Dr. John B. Howes, professor of rural church at the Westminster Theological Seminary, delivered the sermon on the subject "Widen the Place for You Tent."

The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of the host church, was in charge of the service. He gave the invocation and led the responsive reading of Psalm 89, and read the Scripture from St. John 12:20-26. The Senior Choir of St. Paul's Church sang the anthem "In the Cathedral of My Heart," under the direction of L. Robert Snyder, accompanied by Mrs. Winfield A. Lippy, church organist. Robert Yingling rendered a vocal solo.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Kammerer after the offering was received. The closing prayer was given by Rev. Dr. Howes and the Rev. Mr. Kammerer pronounced the benediction.

The preaching mission service this evening will be in charge of the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, and will be held in St. Paul's Church at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Howes will speak on the subject "Clear the Ground." Music will be in charge of St. John's Choir. The preaching mission is

Each time I greet the golden glow . . . that lights a morning sky . . . I feel a thrill beyond compare . . . and all my hopes are high . . . with rays of tenderness divine . . . my sunrise sprays the world . . . to fill my heart with faith and strength . . . for daybreak has unfurled . . . the heavens become radiant . . . with God's eternal light . . . a wondrous finale to . . . the darkness of the night . . . prelude of glory to each day . . . a welcome warm and true . . . my sunrise paves the way for me . . . to work and follow through . . . oh sunrise you awake my soul . . . I thirst to feel your kiss . . . with you there comes a sweet embrace . . . fashioned with dewdrop bliss . . . and so it is I sing your praise . . . I know I always will . . . rejoice to see you reappear . . . God's promise to fulfill.

OLD DIKES, SEA WALLS POUNDED BY HEAVY STORM

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe's dikes and sea walls, age-old bastions against the raging oceans, stood strong and firm today after 24 hours of battering by gale-churned seas.

Anxious watchers, remembering when flood waters burst through the dikes and wrecked vast areas of the Low Countries and Eastern England last February, sighed with relief as they watched the seas die down today.

In England, police and Coast Guards kept an all-night vigil in low coastal areas, then left their watch as weathermen reported soon after 10 a.m. that the crisis hour of high tide had passed safely.

Report Blizzards

In the Netherlands, where overnight water levels were the highest since last winter's floods in which 1,795 persons died, the situation was reported nearly back to normal.

Blizzards and heavy snowfalls were reported continually in other areas from Scandinavia down to Italy.

In Denmark, the little Jutland town of Randers was flooded. Townsfolk rowed today through water-logged streets to salvage their belongings.

The storm took its toll of shipping and sent tiny coastal vessels scurrying for shelter. The German freighter Traustein and the Greek tanker Leros both ran aground off the north German coast in a heavy snowstorm. The British collier Foch Rose ran ashore at Shoreham and partly blocked the harbor mouth. Off Sweden several coastal vessels were reported missing in the overnight blizzards.

Some Areas Escape. But while the storm roared threateningly with sub-zero temperatures over parts of Scandinavia, West Germany and high ground in Italy, France and Austria, other parts of Europe were untouched.

London and Brussels basked peacefully under clear skies and brilliant sunshine. From Paris and Oslo came reports of fair weather and temperatures normal for the time of year.

32 Families Flee New Jersey Blaze

WEST NEW YORK, N.J. (AP)—An early-morning fire swept through two five-story brick apartments and stores in the heart of the business district here today.

Thirty-two families were evacuated as the flames guaged the buildings and threatened adjoining apartments in this community across the Hudson from Manhattan.

Several firemen were slightly injured, but no other casualties were reported.

The fire was brought under control shortly after 8 a.m.

CRITICALLY INJURED

BREWSTER, N. Y. (AP)—A Honesdale, Pa., man was injured critically last night in an automobile accident here.

State police said the car driven by Elmer L. Dapper apparently lurched out of control, crossed to the opposite side of a four-lane highway, and smashed into a tree.

BLAMES REDS FOR BREAKDOWN OF EXPLANATION PLAN FOR POWS

By JOHN RANDOLPH

MUNSAU, Korea (AP)—The U. N. Commander, Gen. John E. Hull, today blamed the Communists for the breakdown of prisoner explanations and said without qualification that all anti-Red prisoners will be freed at midnight Jan. 22.

To drive home the UNC demand that the captives be released "as of 12:01 a.m. Jan. 23," U. S. Marines and engineers began stringing miles of barbed wire fences to channel the prisoners from neutral zone compounds to rail heads.

Blasts Report

Hull reiterated the U. N. Command's position in a strongly worded letter to Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission.

The U. N. commander blasted as one-sided and slanted a report by Indian, Polish and Czech members of the repatriation commission that accused the UNC of maintaining control over the anti-Red prisoners.

"The U. N. Command," Hull declared, "categorically denies any implication that we have attempted, in any way, to exercise control to the slightest degree over" the prisoners.

Enumerates Causes

He said the Communist high command caused the collapse of the explanation program by:

1. Unreasonable and changing demands for explanation facilities.
2. Refusal to accept reasonable numbers of willing prisoners for explanations each day.
3. The Reds' rejection of available explanation time unless the

Trio Of World's Best-Dressed Women

The 1953 list of the world's best-dressed women includes Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, left, only woman member of the Eisenhower cabinet; Mrs. William Paley, center, wife of the head of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and Mrs. Winston Guest of New York and Palm Beach. Mrs. Paley is first on the list, with Mrs. Guest second and Mrs. Hobby sixth. List is compiled on basis of an international poll conducted by the New York Dress Institute.

NNRC and Indian custodial troops approved all their demands—including the use of force to make POWs listen to explanations.

Hull told Thimayya the UNC is fully prepared to handle the 20,000 North Korean and Chinese prisoners who refuse to return to their Red-ruled homelands.

Bitter Opposition

Neither the Indian command nor the NNRC apparently has made a firm decision regarding the Jan. 22 release date.

The Communists are bitterly opposed to freeing the prisoners when the Jan. 22 deadline rolls around, demanding that a yet-to-be convened Korean peace conference decide their fate.

Hull told Thimayya the armistice agreement clearly points out that the explanations period ended Dec. 23—and that the prisoners be released 30 days later.

"We therefore cannot accept any alternate proposal," he said.

The 21 American, 1 British and 327 South Korean prisoners who have embraced communism presumably would also be freed as civilians the same day the anti-Red POWs are released.

TV BOUT TONIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—Walter Cartier and Randy Sandy, a pair of New York middleweights badly in need of an important victory, open the week at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight in a bout seen on TV (Dumont) in some sections of the country.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service reports that 6,225 federal game law violators were fined a total of $188,385 and sentenced to an aggregate of 268 days in jail during the 1953 fiscal year.

Veteran Reporter Dies On Saturday

TAMAQUA, Pa. (AP)—James E. Lawler, veteran Schuylkill County newspaperman, died Saturday night. He was 62.

Lawler had been managing editor of the Tamaqua Evening Courier since 1936. He worked on the paper as a reporter from 1916-1920 and, after working a number of years at the Philadelphia post office, returned to Schuylkill County to serve as a courthouse reporter for a number of county newspapers.

He is survived by two sisters.

Al (Dusty) Stefano, basketball coach at St. John's University, was stationed at Pearl Harbor on that infamous day—Dec. 7, 1941. He was in the Army.

MRS. PALEY IS WORLD'S BEST DRESSED WOMAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Duchess of Windsor has lost her title of best-dressed woman in the world to an old rival for the honor, Mrs. William Paley of New York.

Mrs. Paley, wife of the head of the Columbia Broadcasting System, nosed out the duchess for the first place in 1948 and 1949.

The duchess' fall this year was all the harder, as she almost slipped right out of the first 10. She landed in a 10th place tie with actress Mary Martin.

Socialite Second

Results in the international poll, conducted by the New York Dress Institute since 1940, were announced yesterday.

Others on the current list:

2. Mrs. Winston Guest, socialite of New York and Palm Beach.

3. Mrs. Byron Foy, of New York, daughter of the founder of the Chrysler Motor Corp. and wife of one of its chief executives.

4. Mme. Henri Bonnet, wife of the French ambassador to the United States.

5. Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Jr., wife of the publisher of the New York Journal-American.

Mrs. Hobby Sixth

6. Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, of Houston and Washington, U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

7. Mme. Louis Arpels, of Paris and New York, whose husband is in the jewelry firm of Van Cleef and Arpels.

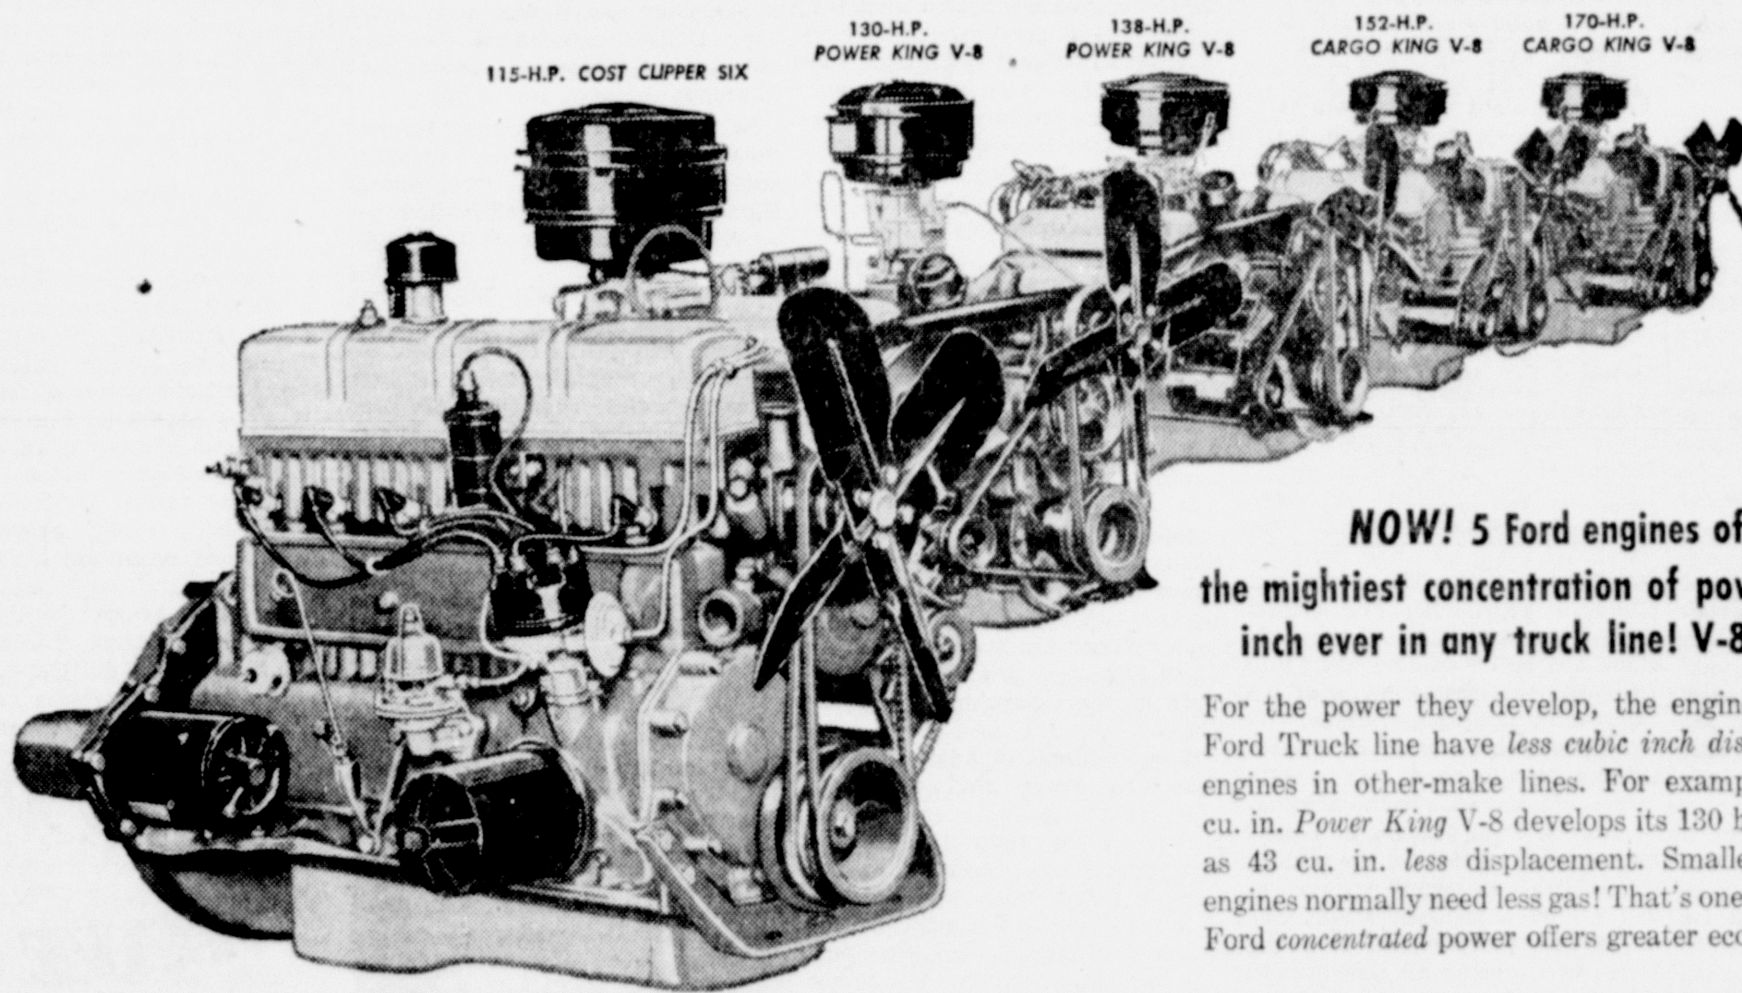

8. Princess Margaret Rose of Great Britain.

9. A tie between Mrs. Henry Ford II, wife of the Detroit motor executive, and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, wife of the New York sportsman.

Announcing for '54 NEW FORD TRUCKS

with TRIPLE ECONOMY!

NOW! 5 Ford engines offer the mightiest concentration of power per cubic inch ever in any truck line! V-8 and SIX!

For the power they develop, the engines in the 1954 Ford Truck line have less cubic inch displacement than engines in other-make lines. For example, Ford's 239 cu. in. Power King V-8 develops its 130 h.p. on as much as 43 cu. in. less displacement. Smaller-displacement engines normally need less gas! That's one big reason why Ford concentrated power offers greater economy!

Ford takes the lead in ALL 3 vital factors that make for lower-cost trucking!

1. Now, only in Ford Trucks—gas-saving, LOW-FRICTION, high-compression, overhead-valve, deep-block engines in all truck models! 115- to 170-h.p.!
2. New Driverized Cabs, Master-Guide Power Steering, Power Brakes, Fordomatic Drive for faster control!

Temperance Movement: On Sunday afternoon the prayer meeting was held in the Presbyterian church largely attended. On Sunday night a temperance meeting was held in St. James church, which was crowded to overflowing. Mr. Duley conducted the meeting himself. The meetings in the Methodist church will be continued this week, every night. Over nine hundred have signed the pledge already, representing every class, old and young, male and female.

Tuesday night, New Year's eve, Mr. Duley held a special service for gentlemen, from 7 to 8 o'clock, a kind of experience meeting, at which pledged men made a brief, but interesting statements. At nine o'clock he commenced another meeting which continued until after midnight—the incoming of the New Year being greeted with earnest

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BABIES

Babies embody the greatest commodity that this world affords. The birth of each one is an event in itself, and who can predict the effect upon world history that any one of them may later demonstrate?

While Napoleon was ravishing Europe with wars, babies—millions of them, were being born in all parts of the earth. But people only read and trembled over the news of battles, wondering when they would cease.

In one year, midway between Trafalgar and Waterloo, the year being 1809, here are the names of a few babies that were then born: Gladstone, later to become Prime Minister of England; Tennyson, one of the world's great poets and poet-laureate of England; Oliver Wendell Holmes, noted physician, poet, and writer; Charles Darwin, whose book, "The Origin of Species," was a world event; Felix Mendelssohn, the great composer, and Abraham Lincoln, who became one of the greatest of American Presidents, and a world figure. All babies in the year 1809!

Future rulers, Presidents, writers, scientists, poets, inventors, and men and women representing very endeavor in life are being born this very day. Babies, the hope of the world, and may they all live to enjoy the blessings of universal peace, and only to read about the wars that have so despoiled this beautiful earth. Said F. W. Boreham: "When a wrong wants righting, or truth wants preaching, or a continent wants opening, God sends a baby into the world to do it!"

Nothing in all this world is so precious as a baby. Just think of the impact upon the world caused by the birth of that baby in Bethlehem. With the coming of each Christmas the event is newly glorified. In the firmament of all mothers' hearts shine the stars of a holy Heaven.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Stumbling And Stammering."

Just Folks

WHO'S TIRED?
Home go the guests from out of town;
The last farewells to them we say.
The tree will soon be taken down.
The gifts are being put away.

The holidays I thought were fun,
I ate too much I can't deny.
The parties—I loved every one—
But glad they're over now am I.

Thought I: "Twill be a year again
Before my strength I'll over-take."
When up to me came little Jane
"What holiday comes next?" to ask.

As fresh as eight years old can be,
And I the weariest of men,
Still wanting more, she questioned me:
"What holiday comes next and when?"

temperance work. The room was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. Quite a number of our most influential, representative young men signified the closing hours of the old year by signing the pledge.

On New Year's day the ladies provided a free lunch of coffee, rolls, turkey, chicken, etc., in the Methodist church, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., for the special benefit of the pledged men, which was largely partaken of and proved a pleasant affair. The tables were presided over by young ladies who greeted all comers with cheerful smiles and greetings. About 300 persons partook of the lunch.

The strength and all pervading character of the present temperance movement manifested itself in the marked quietness of the town on New Year's day and the night preceding—no signs of drunkenness, rowdiness, or noise. Bar rooms and saloons were deserted, and the usual haunts of revelry vacant.

Mr. Duley, we understand, is engaged in a voluntary service, and asks no pay. At the meeting Wednesday night, however, a pleasant incident took place, which shows the public appreciation of his labors in Gettysburg. A few ladies during the day, without Mr. D.'s knowledge, called on some of our citizens for contributions to a "New Year's Gift," and the result was the presentation to Mr. Duley of a check for $166.00.

Veteran Carves Pipe Image Of Noted Folk

LIVINGSTON, Mont. (AP)—M. J. (Blackie) Felsten, a Navy veteran whose ships have touched almost every port in the world, carves personalized pipes — to resemble the faces of famous people.

He sells a few pipes at Christmas time, but the remainder of his 250 to 300 a year output is given away to friends, or to the famous people they resemble.

"I watch for pictures of celebrities who smoke pipes," he explains.

He spends the completed pipe to the celebrity, and asks only one of the person's old pipes in return. No one has yet declined the exchange. Felsten pipes are owned by such well known pipe smokers as J. Edgar Hoover, Bing Crosby, Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, Art Baker, Bennett Cerf and Glen McCarthy.

Shippensburg Here Tuesday To Meet GHS In Loop Game; County League Also Opens

Tuned and tested in warm-up games during the past several weeks, schoolboy cagers throughout the county get down to real business this week when league play is started on two fronts.

Tuesday evening marks the opening of the South Penn and Adams County Scholastic Basketball Leagues and in both the champions of a year ago, Chambersburg in the South Penn and Boiling Springs in the Adams County, rate as the teams to beat.

Warriors At Home

George Forney's Gettysburg High dribblers will meet Shippensburg here Tuesday in their initial loop contest, the preliminary game getting underway at 6:45 o'clock.

The Warriors have won three of four games while Shippensburg has won two and lost four. Gettysburg has defeated Westminster, Delone and Alumni while losing to York. Shippensburg split even in games with Biglerville and Greencastle and twice to Boiling Springs.

A lack of height and absence of a strong bench will likely prove the biggest handicap to the Warriors. However, the starting outfit of Jay Schmitt, Jeff Langsam, George Penn, Paul Ketterman and Bobby Rohrbach has acquitted itself nobly in previous games and may pull several surprises.

Ray Keefer, Shippensburg six-footer, has been the leading scorer for the Greyhounds to date and will undoubtedly be the man the Warriors will have to keep bottled up Tuesday.

Headlining the league games Tuesday will be the Hershey-Chambersburg battle at Chambersburg (6-1). Last year Hershey (5-1) furnished the champions stuff competition, losing at Chambersburg and winning at Chocolatetown. After tying for the second half title, Hershey bowed to Chambersburg 58-50 in the playoff.

Hanover Hopeful

Harry Pure, former Gettysburg College star, makes his league coaching debut by taking his Waynesboro Cagers (3-2) to Hanover (4-2). The Tornado has shown over (4-2). The Tornado has shown vast improvement in pre-season contests while the veteran Nighthawk squad is considered a definite threat to Chambersburg. The Hawks copped the title in 1952 after Chambersburg had previously won eight in a row.

Carlisle, (3-2), first half titlist last year and loser to Chambersburg in the title game, plays at Mechanicsburg (0-3). Neither team has shown enough to date to indicate championship contention.

RICHMOND BID FOR LOOP BERTH UP TO COUNCIL

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Richmond's bitter five-month battle for a berth in the Class AAA International Baseball League comes to a climax tonight with City Council deciding the issue.

The nine-man council will vote after a 7:30 p. m. public hearing whether or not to lease municipally-owned Parker Field for use as a home park for a triple-A team.

If a majority of the councilmen vote "yes," the city will assure itself a franchise in the International, of which it was a charter member in 1934.

But if the majority says "no," the fight for higher class baseball will be lost beyond recall and once more, as it has for more than 30 years, Richmond will field a club in the Class B Piedmont League.

Council Action Unknown

What council will do was still an enigma as the time for the hearing approached. All the councilmen professed "sympathy" with Haddock's efforts to bring IL baseball to the city. But only Haddock himself, a council member, had committed himself to a "yes" vote.

The council decision will have far-reaching effects outside of Richmond. Should Richmond lose its bid, Havana, Cuba, also would lose its chances at an IL franchise, and the International probably would operate as a six-team league this year. It lost two teams after the close of the 1953 season when Baltimore stepped into the majors and Springfield, Mass., withdrew.

GUS DORAIS, WHO REVOLUTIONIZED FOOTBALL, DIES

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP)—Death has come to Gus Dorais, through whose imagination the forward pass probably will live forever in American football.

The 62-year-old famed former coach died at his home just outside of Detroit yesterday. He was the little man who revolutionized football as a Notre Dame player in 1913 with his overhand forward passes.

Dorais, former University of Detroit and Detroit Lions coach, had been ill the last six months.

Dorais And Rockne

It was Dorais and the immortal Knute Rockne who introduced the forward pass—as it is known today—to football before World War I. They were the ones who also laid the solid foundation on which Notre Dame built its fabulous grid dynasty.

Dorais was the quarterback, the heady signal-caller, and Rockne the end on the Notre Dame team which went East in November 1913 to meet an Army team which was expected to name its own core.

But Dorais stunned the Cadets—and the football world as well—by throwing overhanded passes which led to a 35-13 upset. Throwing in his then unorthodox manner, Dorais completed 12 straight passes to Rockne and other Notre Dame players.

Retired in '47
The forward pass had been used prior to this game but only sparingly and the ball was thrown underhanded, not at all like Dorais' long, arching passes.

Upon graduating from Notre Dame, Dorais, a slight 145-pounder, played professional ball for a brief period and then embarked on a coaching career. He was head coach at University of Detroit from 1925 to 1942. He moved back into the pro ranks in 1943 as coach of the Detroit Lions. In 1947 he retired from football but never lost interest in the game.

Woman Editor Has Blood Transfusion

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Rebecca F. Gross, Pennsylvania editor seriously injured in a New Year's eve traffic accident, was reported in good condition today at Williamsport Hospital.

The 48-year-old editor of the Lock Haven Express, well-known in newspaper circles throughout the state, lost both legs in the collision.

She received several visitors Saturday but after a not too restful night visitors were banned yesterday. She received a blood transfusion yesterday and then hospital officials said she was "feeling pretty good."

side by side, pulling out the posts which had been embedded in concrete and came to a stop in Mrs. George R. Miller's lawn. His damage was estimated at $100.

Other Minor Mishaps

When police arrived those four motorists were there. They reported three other cars had also approached the scene, slowed, skidded, hit the bridge and each other. Then the other three cars, all with minor damage, had left the scene, apparently fearing that if they remained someone else would skid into them.

And it all happened, police said, because an ice free road had suddenly become a glaze of ice. Police know how icy it was. They almost skidded into the bridge themselves.

Two Youths Hurt

Albert C. Hand, 24, of Shamokin, a college student was removed to the Warner Hospital with lacerations of the face, left knee and scalp, a possible fracture of several ribs and abrasions of the right knee when his car skidded off an icy road Sunday morning at 5:30 o'clock five miles north of Biglerville. Hand's car rolled down a three-foot embankment, John Calvin Cox, 18, Frederickburg, Va., a passenger in the car, suffered a fracture of the right ankle. Both were removed to the Warner Hospital by ambulance. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,650.

Two Crashes At Cross Keys

Two accidents were investigated at Cross Keys, one Saturday night and one Sunday night.

Saturday evening at 5:45 o'clock Ruth Elizabeth Grim, 35, of Abbotstown, was driving west, on the Lincoln Highway, and slowed preparatory to making a left turn.

As she did so Jacob E. Whippley, 31, York, also driving west, following the Grim vehicle, attempted to brake and skidded into the rear of the Abbotstown car. Damage totaled $300. No one was injured.

Sunday evening at 6:40 o'clock, according to police, John H. Johnston, 39, Harrisburg, driving north, stopped at the intersection, then drove into the path, police said, of a car driven by Lloyd Eugene Meyers, 28, Mercersburg, on the Lincoln Highway. Meyers' car struck the Johnston vehicle in the side, forcing it into a truck driven by James Carson, Des Moines, Iowa, which had stopped on the north side of the intersection.

Martha Johnston, a passenger in the Johnston car, suffered a leg injury and shock and was treated by Dr. Kenneth W. Ehrhart, New Oxford. Damage to the Johnston car was set at $1,000, to Meyers, $600 and to the truck, $60.

3 Cars Pile Up

Three cars collided two miles north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. at 7:45 o'clock Sunday night. Police said Baldo Louis Marchigiani, 25, Jessup, halted when a car ahead of him stopped. According to police, William A. Corcoran, 21, Harrisburg, a college student, following behind Marchigiani, was unable to stop and struck the rear of the Jessup car. Clair Edwin Collins, 25, Fort Bragg, N. C., behind the Corcoran vehicle, rammed into its rear. Damage to Marchigiani's vehicle was $350, to Corcoran, $500, and to Collins, $300.

Sunday afternoon at 1:25 o'clock 2½ miles east of Littlestown on the Hanover Rd., a car driven by Charles Cochran, 24, Hanover, crossed the road on a slight turn and struck a vehicle driven by Norman Werner, 18, Littlestown R. 2, police reported. Damage to Werner's car was set at $300, to Cochran's, $45.

His-Run Driver Sought

Police continued today their investigation of a hit-run accident 100 feet west of Gettysburg on the Lincoln Highway at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Kathryn V. Bowman, 40, Shrewsbury, told police she was driving west when a car came over on her side of the road and struck her vehicle, causing $100 damage, then continued on into Gettysburg and struck another auto. Mrs. Bowman told police the hit-run driver then stopped, told the operators of the cars he had hit that he was going to find a policeman and drove off.

When he failed to return within what seemed a proper time, Mrs. Bowman went in search of police herself.

No Major Changes In Grid Rules Expected

CINCINNATI (AP)—No major changes for 1954 football, in either the television setup or the substitution rules, were in prospect to day as the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. launched its 56-day 48th annual convention.

The parent body takes no definite action on anything until Friday, but early indications were that, in the absence of any heated objections, the group would cling to the restricted television setup and the one-plateon style of play.

Some 1,300 of the nation's outstanding athletic administrators and coaches were slated to attend the sessions of the NCAA and five affiliated groups.

SHAKEUPS IN RATINGS WON'T UPSET KENTUCKY OR THE DUKES

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Basketball rankings are due for a shake-up when the ballots are counted in this week's poll but nothing in the past or on the immediate horizon figures to jar Kentucky and Duquesne off their lofty one-two perches.

Top-rated Kentucky has been idle since knocking sixth-ranked Minnesota out of the unbeaten class a week ago for its seventh win against no defeats. But the Wildcats don't figure to drop lower than second place, and perhaps not even that, in the Associated Press poll.

While Adolph Rupp was giving his Kentuckians a rest, many of the nation's foremost teams fought it out in a wide assortment of tournaments. Duquesne was one of some two dozen tournament winners. And on the basis of their triumph in the Madison Square Garden Holiday Festival in New York, the towering Dukes could well supplant Kentucky at the top.

Dukes Beat Niagara

The towering Dukes beat well-regarded Niagara in the Garden tournament and then last Saturday smothered the University of Mexico 99-35. That was No. 11 in the Dukes' perfect string.

Kentucky has what shapes as two easy assignments this week. The Wildcats face Xavier of Cincinnati tonight and open their Southeastern Conference schedule against Georgia Tech. Both are home games for Kentucky.

Duquesne could well have a tough job against Dayton tonight but should have a romp Saturday at Johnstown, Pa., against St. Francis (Pa.).

Minnesota Big Contender

Third-ranked Indiana (7-1), which opened the Big Ten campaign last Saturday with a 62-60 victory over keyed-up Michigan, faces two more conference opponents this week—Wisconsin tonight and Minnesota Saturday. Minnesota (8-1) shapes up as the Hoosiers' chief contender for the conference title they won last year.

Since being ranked fourth a week ago, largely on the basis of a defeat of Indiana, Oregon State has dropped two games—to Navy and Duke in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh. The Beavers can look for a decline in national ranking. They now have a -3 record.

The Fifth-rated Oklahoma Aggies, who strengthened their rating by winning the All-College Tournament at Oklahoma City to run their record to 12-1, opens its Missouri Valley season at Wichita (11-1) Thursday and plays host to Houston Saturday.

Big Games Ahead

Western Kentucky (12-0), the winningest major team following victory in the Louisville tournament, hopes to make it 13 against Murray State Saturday. Illinois (6-2), with an 84-2 defeat at the hands of Minnesota last Saturday, tackles Northwestern and Michigan State this week. North Carolina State (9-3), 69-65 winner over Villanova Saturday, has engagements Virginia Tech Tuesday and Duke Saturday.

Duke, winner of the Dixie Classic, and N. C. State figure to be the chief contenders for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown. And Fordham (7-1), ranked 10th, faces a busy week with New York University tonight, St. Francis of Brooklyn Wednesday and Army Saturday.

Student Manager Plays For Duquesne

PITTSBURGH (AP)—There's little chance that Len Jeffreys, student manager of the all winning Duquesne University basketball team, will get into action as the Dukes try to make it 12 in a row against Dayton University here tonight, but Jeffreys won't mind.

The student manager, who said he always wanted to play college basketball, finally got his chance as the Dukes trounced Mexico University, 99-35, Saturday night. Coach Duddy Moore, who cleared his bench, finally sent in Jeffreys who played eight minutes and scored four points.

"I'm saving all the newspaper clippings and a copy of the official score book," Jeffreys said last night. "That's something I've dreamed of . . . but never expected to happen."

DELONE EDGES LITTLESTOWN CAGERS 48-44

The Red and Blue cagers of Delone High School resumed action after the Christmas holidays by capturing their second straight win over Littlestown, 48-44, on the victor's court Saturday.

The Thunderbolts got off to an early start to lead the Squires at the end of the first period 10-6. Yealy and Chronister hit on fouls for Littlestown while Jude Smith dumped in a free throw for Delone.

Jack Bowers sank two consecutive field goals for the Bolts. Delone's Ruby Raby tossed in a hook shot followed by Smith's one out-of-two foul throws. Whitey Billman and Dean Selby then matched jump shots as the quarter ended.

Opening the second stanza Billman missed two free throws, but was able to push in the rebound. Smith then hit on a foul shot followed by two of Billman's sets.

Yealy, Chronister, Bowers, and Kump contributed to the Bolts scoring by hooping five out of 11 free tosses. Delone started to gain ground when Don Chrismser and Smith connected on set shots. Redding and Bair added foul tosses. Selby and Yealy were able to tickle the cords on lay-up shots.

With the period nearing the close Chrismser dumped in a jump shot immediately followed by Redding's lay-up after a steal. The half ended with Delone in front 23-22.

Delone Moves Ahead

The Squires spurred in the third frame as Bair and Greenholt swished corner shots. Yealy and Showmaker in a pair of tosses from the foul line. Chrismser hit on a set and a free throw added to Greenholt's corner shot. Selby and Kump started matching one-handed push shots. The quarter ended with Showmaker looping a push shot as Delone led 36-32.

Going into the final stanza the Squires started connecting from the foul line as they netted eight for eight in that division. The only other scoring was a pair of push shots by Chrismser. Littlestown matched Delone in scoring in this period. Kump, Selby, and Chronister made the outside shots while Yealy, Kump, and Bowers did the scoring from the foul line.

Chrismser was the high scorer for the evening, looping 14 points while Yealy and Selby shared honors for Littlestown with 10 each.

Squire Reserves Win

The Delone reserves took an early lead and were never threatened throughout the game as they took the opener over the Littlestown reserves 45-35. Funk topped the Squire scoring with 14 points while Bolt honors were shared by Zulek and Gouker with nine each.

On Wednesday the Squires travel to Lebanon where they will meet the powerful Lebanon Catholic High team. Littlestown meets Biglerville at home Tuesday.

Overall dimensions of "The Stone" are 46'x25'; cubage is 22,000 feet. If you want either a detached or attached garage, it is easy enough to have one constructed by making arrangements with your contractor before actual building begins. However, if you have a garage built, or plan to have one sometime in the future, you'll need a lot larger than the 70 foot one which could easily accommodate "The Stone" by itself.

Shutters can be used advantageously to dress up the exterior of "The Stone." If you use white shutters or clapboards for the exterior of this charmingly modern home, colored blinds will add just the right touch of brightness to the house exterior.

Multi-colored roofing can also be used to give a touch of brightness to the exterior of "The Stone." Low bushes and flowering plants make the most attractive border plantings, simple landscaping is best. To make the front entrance more attractive you can plant more roses or any flowers that climb, so they will grow up the trellis work at the left of the front door.

In the entry hall, which leads from the front door to the living room, there is an unusually long coat closet that can easily hold guests' hats, coats, etc., in addition to all your family's stormy weather equipment.

Measuring 18'x13'x4", the living room actually is a connecting link with the rest of the rooms in "The Stone."

In the front wall, the handsome picture window, flanked by casement windows, looks out on the flowering plants in the plant box and the well-cared-for front lawn. Try to so place your house that you'll also be able to reap full benefits, through these windows, of whatever view may be available.

SHERMAN'S CLOTHING STORE

WINTER SEASON IS IDEAL TIME FOR PRUNING

The dormant winter season is ideal for pruning plants that need this treatment to give them better form and make them more floriferous as well as heavier bearers, says Alfred Putz in the New York Herald Tribune.

Even the midst of winter is not a bad time provided the plant tissue is not frozen, but as a rule most gardeners prune as winter is on the way out and before the plants put on new growth. In our area this is usually around February or March, depending upon how winter progresses.

First consideration should be given to roses because they are so important and need careful attention to produce a maximum of large perfect flowers. Most important of all are the hybrid tea varieties. Most gardeners cut back the long shoots before winter arrives, primarily to prevent them from being tossed around by winter storms. For safety's sake soil is gently heaped over the plants until at least the two lowest buds on each branch are covered. That will assure their survival if winter should be more severe than the plants are able to endure if the tops are fully exposed.

Pruning Should Be Light

Spring pruning may well be restricted to cutting away shoots that were killed by extreme cold. Otherwise winter pruning should be rather light. Cutting the plants back to eight inches or so, as still widely practiced, has been proven a serious handicap in that it forces the plants to live an abnormal life. Intense pruning, contrary to accepted belief, does not make for better and larger flowers. Plants cut back to two feet only will be healthier, stronger and more productive with individual blooms as large as those on heavily pruned ones.

If the bushes are very vigorous let them stand three feet high when pruning is completed. Such plants will have a more extensive root system which is essential to vigor and longevity.

Climbing roses inclined to develop hard old canes that persist almost indefinitely can easily be rejuvenated by cutting out the oldest and thickest ones at the base, but for each one removed there should be at least two and preferably more young ones to carry on. Such old canes often show definite signs of succumbing to disease and for that reason should be burned rather than put on a trash heap which may remain for some time before removal.

Shrub pruning should be restricted to those that bloom during the summer and fall only. If spring bloomers are cut back in late winter the flower display will be curtailed correspondingly. Only old wood that has little inclination to bear flowers should be removed now.

In most cases this concerns wood three years or older on barberry, cotoneaster, flowering currant, deutzia, bush dogwood, mock orange (Philadelphus) and spiraea.

Thin Out Old Wood

In the case of Forsythia it pays to remove all wood four years or older.

Spiraea Anthony Waterer will be much more attractive if every second branch that developed during the last season is cut out completely but the choice should be restricted to the weaker shoots.

The butterfly-bush (Buddleia) if left unpruned will reach an ungainly size with flowers borne so high that they are easily overlooked. By cutting them back to within a foot of the ground new shoots will grow plentifully from the base to form a nicely shaped plant with many more flower trusses than tall plants can produce.

Coralberry may be shorn of all its old wood except that needed to keep the plant shapely. Bush honeysuckle looks well and attractive even if the branches stand rather crowded. If too dense to let light into the center, taking out a limited number of old branches will improve the appearance and give the plant a new lease on life.

Hydrangeas will give the largest flower clusters if pruned severely and that in the case of the variety called Aegae (short for arborescens grandiflora) means cutting it back to within a little stump above the soil surface. The hydrangea seems so abundantly at New Jersey seal shore resorts (Hydrangea opuloides) must be pruned immediately after it has finished its flower display. If pruned in late winter there will be no flowers.

Pruning is not just a matter of

TWO SENATORS QUIZ GOUZENKO ON RED SPIES

MONTREAL (P) — Strict official secrecy and thick Canadian snow covered the tracks of U. S. Senators William Jenner (R-Ind) and Pat McCarran (D-Nev) today in their quest for what Igor Gouzenko knows about Soviet spying in the United States.

The two top members of the Senate internal security subcommittee, accompanied by two aides, arrived here yesterday in a blaze of publicity for their secret meeting with the former Soviet code clerk whose 1945 flight from the Russian Embassy in Ottawa revealed a Communist atom spy ring in America and Britain.

Plan No Statement

After a news conference and a closely guarded, six-hour parley in the Windsor Hotel with Sup. J. R. Lemieux of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the senators and Lemieux slipped into an official car late yesterday afternoon and drove rapidly off into the snowstorm which blanketed Montreal.

There was some speculation that Gouzenko had been brought to the hotel for the interview, but the party's later departure seemed to indicate they were headed for a secret rendezvous. U. S. Ambassador Douglas Stuart also attended the hotel conference and left with the group.

Lemieux said no statement would be issued after the interview with Gouzenko. The Americans previously had agreed reluctantly to the Canadian government's demand that it should have control over what is published about the meeting.

293 ARE KILLED IN 78 HOURS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Light by contrast with the appalling slaughter of more recent years, the toll of accidents during the New Year's weekend was still only a handful short of the record for such a three-day period.

During the 8-hour period from 6 p.m. (local time) Thursday to midnight Sunday, 293 died in traffic accidents, 39 in fires and 70 in a variety of mishaps, for a total of 402.

The record for a three-day new year's weekend was set at 424 in 1949-50 and equaled the following year; the record of traffic deaths for such a period, set in 1949-50, is 304.

The National Safety Council had estimated that 360 would die in traffic.

The 1953 Christmas weekend saw 717 persons die in accidents, 523 in traffic mishaps.

cutting here and there to shape a plant or rejuvenate it. The position of the cuts if of the greatest importance. Always make it just above a bud or eye facing in the direction where new growth is most important. Thus buds on the outside branches of shrubs should be facing outward. In the center the selection must be varied to assure an even fill-in as the new shoots grow.

YOUTH ADMITS SETTING BLAZE

WEST HEMPSTEAD, N. Y. (P) — A 13-year-old boy has been quoted by police as admitting he intentionally set a fire in which a 7-year-old girl died.

The fire Saturday night in a one-family house here killed Doris Krane. Her twin sister Deborah was rescued by a passer-by.

Police took Ronnie Friedman, 13, into custody yesterday on a general charge of juvenile delinquency and said he admitted igniting curtains at an open window.

Ronnie was quoted as saying he often played with the dead girl's sister Carol, 13, and "had been beaten up by her boy friend."

Officers said young Friedman previously had attended a private school where psychiatric treatment was given and that he was suspected of setting other fires.

FIRE DISRUPTS RAIL SERVICE

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Train service was reported operating normally at the Reading Co.'s terminal in downtown Philadelphia today after a stubborn fire disrupted operations for several hours last night.

During the more than four hours that firemen fought the two-alarm fire in a storage room of a drug store on the ground floor of the nine-story building, most incoming passengers disembarked at the railroad's North Broad Street station. A few trains were brought in to the rear of the terminal, which is on the second floor.

Hundreds of spectators were attracted to the scene as dense clouds of smoke billowed through the building. Firemen ordered it evacuated.

The fire was not widespread and most of the damage was caused by the dense smoke. Cause and estimate of damage was not immediately available.

Wine more than 2,100 years old was taken from an ancient wreck in the Mediterranean sea by a 1953 archaeological expedition.

DEMOCRATS TO ASK QUESTIONS ON TROOP PLAN

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (P) — Democrats will ask President Eisenhower at a White House briefing tomorrow to tell them why he thinks they should support his decision to withdraw two American divisions from Korea.

Sen. Russell of Georgia, top Democrat on the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he is anxious to learn the background for this military shift. Earlier, Russell said that the move seemed at first glance to "smack of appeasement."

"I am sure the President has some very good reasons for making this decision," Russell said in an interview. "I feel that we in Congress should be apprised of the reasons."

Condemned By Some
Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, was understood to be backing Russell in this search for information.

Several of Johnson's colleagues have condemned the move as likely to weaken American military strength in Asia at a critical period in international affairs.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) has suggested an investigation of the matter by the Armed Services Committee.

Called "Poor Policy"

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), in an interview in advance of the briefing, criticized the Korean troop reduction along with other recent foreign policy moves, saying he thought they represented "extremely poor policy" as preparation for the Big Four meeting with Russia Jan. 25.

"We might have to make some concessions to get an agreement. But we should be in a position to lead from strength," Humphrey said.

The Minnesotan said he referred to recent announcements of reductions of United States military personnel in the Far East, and to plans to cut back American military and economic aid abroad.

Here's a troussseau every kitchen should have: a dozen dish and glass towels, half a dozen dishcloths and at least four pot holders. Have two of the pot holders large and heavy; the other two can be smaller and lighter in weight.

3-POINT PLAN

FOR GERMANY

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western Powers are planning to confront Russia with a three-point German peace program at the Berlin conference, if it appears that the Soviets show up with some serious intention to negotiate.

One effect of the program worked out by the United States, British and French governments in a series of meetings recently concluded at Paris would be, in the view of Western officials, to wipe out the Communist East German government.

It therefore appears in advance to be wholly unacceptable to the Soviets. Authorities here voice doubt that even a start can be made at Berlin toward developing a real compromise between the Russian and Western attitudes toward Germany's future.

Wide Range Of Topic

There is now ample evidence, however, that the discussions between Western leaders and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov will range far beyond the immediate problem of German peacemaking to embrace:

1. Some talk between Secretary of State and Molotov on President Eisenhower's proposal for a pool of atomic materials for peaceful uses and Russia's renewed call for a ban on atomic weapons.

2. Discussion among all the ministers—Molotov, Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden and the French foreign minister then in office—of relations with Red China. That seems almost certain to lead into some talk of a Korean settlement and the war in Indochina.

Proposals For Germany

U. S., British and French diplomats, at Paris meetings ending about two weeks ago, reaffirmed intention to demand that the German peacemaking proceed by these stages:

1. Holding of elections throughout East and West Germany under conditions which would give the German people complete freedom to vote as they wished. The purpose would be to elect representatives for formation of an all-German government. American diplomats believe that in such an election the German Communists would lose out completely.

2. Organization of an all-German government by the Germans themselves, the conviction here being that it would be established with freedoms and democratic safeguards.

3. Negotiation of a peace treaty to leave the new Germany free to follow any course it chooses. U. S. officials said they are convinced Germany would choose close association with the West.

AGED ATTORNEY DIES

SAYRE, Pa. (AP)—Charles E. Mills, 77, prominent Bradford County attorney who as a young district attorney in pre-World War I days convicted the last two people to be hung in this county, died here yesterday.

Mills also served as a state senator, a state representative, and as chairman of the Bradford County Republican committee. He was also well known as secretary and manager of the Interstate Fair at Athens.

His wife and two children survive.

Reporter Declares Russia Is Not Expected To Attempt War During Internal Development

Editor's Note:—In articles printed last week, William L. Ryan has reported his observations in the Soviet Union. In today's concluding article, a summing up, he relates how the program the Soviet government has charted for itself, amid various pressures from its peoples, may hold hope for the West.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Foreign News Analyst

The Soviet Union needs at least 10 years to get its "two to three years" internal development program on a firm foundation. In this fact lie perhaps the world's greatest hope for peace that will last.

In that 10 years, there is reason to expect, Moscow will avoid any risk of involvement in a major world conflict, even while attempting to hold its gains outside its borders. But with the many dilemmas and contradictions facing the Soviet Union, with its present trend of development, anything can happen.

Much of the Soviet Union today is like the America of the turn of the century, flexing its muscle. In today's world its development is likely to be swifter. But it takes years of road building, home building, machine production and transportation development. The greatest obstacle in its way is the bureaucracy built up by the Communist party under Stalin. In order to approach successes promised, the government of Premier Georgi Malenkov will have to wield a willing knife against the red tape.

Have Much Confidence

There is no end of confidence being expressed, high and low—real confidence that the job can be done. Soviet people are looking anxiously but demandingly to Moscow and the "new government."

Some diplomats think it possible this government feels it can drain off some of the vast expenditures for army and armaments energy and new powerful weapons. Such a course would release much needed material and manpower for the consumer program. But the attitude of the Soviet army, more and more a power in today's Moscow, is a big question mark.

At any rate, the turning inward for which many in the West had hoped seems to be taking place. Along with this development comes a series of contradictions and dilemmas. Here are some:

1. While avoiding major war, the Moscow regime cannot afford peace in the non-Communist sense of the word. It has experimented and found it still needed the ferocious enemy at the door.

Tell Of Fake Threat

2. But, while telling the people on the one hand that they are threatened by an outside enemy armed to the teeth and ready to strike, the regime also tells them to make more refrigerators and vacuum cleaners, household goods and clothing, passenger automobiles and radios. Such propaganda could produce skepticism. People might logically expect to be told they must tighten their belts and make weapons if an enemy is at the gates.

3. Having promised the better life and advertised it so broadly and constantly, the new regime will be obliged to make some semblance of a delivery. It no longer has the absolute central power of the Stalin dictatorship, and its police arm has been weakened by the furious blood purge of Lavrenty Beria and the MVD. For the program to succeed, something must give way. Does the U.S.S.R. dare decrease its heavy industry production, its munitions production or its armed forces?

Conquered Land Is Drained

4. The Moscow regime seems to have no intention of giving up its hold on that part of the world it now dominates. But this continues to drain manpower and resources needed on the home front. Already there is a severe manpower shortage.

5. The regime seems to have no intention of veering away from its policy of supporting Communist activities abroad, of encouraging chaos and rebellion. Yet, in so doing, it increases the danger of open conflict which it cannot afford.

6. While promising communism, the regime actually is moving away from the Leninist path, even as its big neighbor, China, is struggling toward the Leninist goals. Already there is a vast sector of the Soviet population which can be considered middle class, with private property instincts and the determination to pass on to following generations what it has accumulated.

The twin calamities of Stalinism and World War II held down the economic growth of the vast, rich and powerful country. The possibilities are all there. Industrialization, electrification, mechanization of agriculture have built a foundation. In the way stands the Soviet Communist bureaucracy plus the obsession with tremendous military strength.

Neglect Consumer Side

The Soviet Union built great factories and electric power projects, canals and irrigation networks under Stalin. But it neglected the consumer side of the economy. This could prove an Achilles heel in any international test of strength, as it almost did in the last war.

In order to give the country the resiliency to withstand a shock of major proportions, the collective regime under Malenkov must strengthen this weak link. But in so doing, it builds a threat to the Communist party. The middle class, acquiring more of the world's goods, will have more to lose by the threat of war. In acquiring more it will demand more. The middle class has little in common with revolutionary Bolshevism and little taste for throwing away its gains for the glory of the World Revolution.

There is still another factor. Although there is vast ignorance on the part of the Soviet people about the Western world, the barriers already have been pierced. In order to take advantage of Western methods, it has been necessary for the Soviet Union to expose a large number of educated persons to Western influences. Evidences that the Soviet Union copies American ways can be seen on the streets of

YOUTH SLUGS SWEETHEART WITH CAR JACK

CHICAGO (AP)—A lovesick high school senior slugged his sweetheart with a jack handle yesterday in an attempt to write a murder and suicide end to their association. He told police he did it because religious differences prevented their marriage.

The girl, Marlene Bubar, 16, escaped from the car in which they parked on a North Side street after dinner together at a swank local restaurant. Blows inflicted by James Lawrence Fitzhenry, 18, cut her scalp, broke her little finger and thumb of her right hand, and may have fractured her skull.

CHARGE EX-CON WITH MURDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A former convict, released from prison less than a month ago, is being held in county prison today for the grand jury in the New Year's eve slaying of Mrs. Marian Sommerfeld.

Benjamin A. Porta, 29, broke down at his arraignment before Magistrate Clarence C. Friedel yesterday and sobbed:

"I don't know why I did it, I guess it was that booze I'd been drinking. That was the first time I saw her."

Detectives said Porta told them he became enraged when the 41-year-old woman refused to buy him a glass of beer, followed her from a taproom and stabbed her to death.

Porta was arrested early yesterday at his brother's home after police received an anonymous phone tip.

Th former convict was released from Eastern State Penitentiary Dec. 6 after serving three years for forgery.

EX-PREXY DIES

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Private services are to be held in Washington, D. C., for John Francis Jr., writer, attorney and former superintendent of the U. S. Indian School at Carlisle, Pa.

Francis, 78, died at the Masonic Home in nearby Elizabethtown Saturday after a brief illness. He headed the Indian School in 1917 and 1918.

ASK BANK STATEMENTS WASHINGTON (AP)—Comptroller of the Currency Ray M. Gidney today issued a call for a report on the condition of all national banks as of Dec. 31.

Japan, which catches three million metric tons of fish a year, leads the world in fisheries, says the National Geographic Society, the United States being second with 2½ million; Russia two million, and the United Kingdom and Norway 1.1 million each.

the year on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, the only death reported on the toll road for either the Christmas or New Year holiday weekends.

The highway death toll was well above the 19 for the similar 78 hour period Christmas.

The total accidental deaths from the New Year's weekend was 26 compared with 29 for the Christmas weekend.

Skids On Icy Road

The turnpike victim was a 63-year-old Louisville, Ky., woman. Mrs. Ethel Rivers was killed yesterday when the auto in which she was riding skidded on the icy highway, jumped the medial strip, and was struck by an oncoming car.

A teen-aged couple died in a crash near Easton yesterday. The victims were Richard Hammerstone of Easton and Jeannette D'Angelo of Martins Creek, both 19. The car in which they were riding careened into a telephone pole.

The driver, James Hanley, 19, of Easton, and another passenger, Bernard Altman, 19, of Easton, were injured slightly.

Other deaths Saturday and yesterday (all traffic): John S. McKee, 30, Dayton, Ohio, killed Saturday night near Washington when his auto plunged over an embankment.

Irvin Orrin Barner, 80, Mill Hall, struck by a car Saturday in Mill Hall.

Other Accidents

Mrs. Norma Samm, 32, Pottsville, killed near York yesterday when her husband's car skidded into a bridge abutment.

Fred W. Fowler, 43, of Danville, killed yesterday when his car skidded and went over a 15-foot embankment near Danville.

Herman E. Nissen, 21, Duquesne, killed when his auto struck a utility pole near McKeesport yesterday.

Leon E. Wiltse, 49, Buffalo, N. Y., injured fatally yesterday in a two-car collision near Erie.

James J. Whisenant, 72, Creighton, injured fatally yesterday when struck by a car in East Deer Twp., Allegheny County.

Mrs. Grace Ackard, 75, near Uniontown, struck by an auto yesterday in Washington County.

Harry L. Evans, 43, Franklin, killed yesterday when his car struck a bridge near Altoona.

William P. Burke, 31, Philadelphia, died yesterday of injuries received in a collision in Philadelphia Friday.

Her screams brought help and Fitzhenry was caught.

Planned Murder Suicide Fitzhenry sobbed when the girl identified him at a hospital emergency ward, and said he "couldn't live without her." He told police their parents opposed their friendship because he is Baptist and she is Jewish.

Th girl's father, Meyer, a department store buyer, said he would sign an assault with intent to murder complaint against the youth today.

Police said young Fitzhenry, son of an oil company expediter, told them he intended to knock Miss Bubar unconscious and then run his father's car into their garage and leave the engine running so they would be asphyxiated.

Two notes found in the boy's pockets indicated he had planned taking their lives since Monday.

President Eisenhower Reports To The Nation This Evening

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON (AP)—In his talk to the nation tonight President Eisenhower steps across the line dividing his first and second years in office and two periods in his life.

By the calendar his first year doesn't end until Jan. 20. But his second year actually begins tonight with his broadcast report which is preliminary to the return of Congress Wednesday.

For Eisenhower 1953 was a period of preparation. The public, regarding him with high esteem and patient expectation, waited while he postponed action on some major issues and got ready the program he would hand Congress in 1954.

Now the period of performance begins.

Faces Battle Because of the wide differences in Congress on almost any major issue, Eisenhower will have to fight for his program.

Allan Nevins, a historian, in a recent appraisal of the administration in Nation's Business, a magazine published by the United States Chamber of Commerce, made this remark:

"Every true national leader has to take for his motto: 'I do not want to be liked; I want to be esteemed.' Our best administrations have been desperately unpopular in wide circles."

He cited the administrations of Lincoln, Cleveland, Wilson and the two Roosevelts as examples, and added:

"If President Eisenhower thus far has shown a salient weakness, it is that he wishes too much to be liked. In the long run, the mass of the people admire a president most for the enemies he has made."

False Observation

This observation may be accurate within bounds, but a course of action by which a president makes enemies of the mass of the people is guaranteed to make dead ducks of him and his administration.

The same state of political extinction could be arrived at by a president through exactly opposite means: by being so anxious to please everyone that he made compromises that pleased no one.

So far Eisenhower seems to have made few, if any, enemies. But the truth of Nevins' opinion—that Eisenhower wants too much to be liked—will get more of a test in 1954 than in the year just ended.

WANT SENATOR FOR CONGRESS

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A move was underway today to secure a congressional seat for State Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe (R-Monroe).
